EDITORIAL

Welcome to the second volume of our Newsletter, 2024. I trust that the first volume blessed and encouraged you to keep pressing on.

I enjoy helping put together our Newsletter. This Newsletter belongs to all of us and is a means of sharing our testimonies, stories, and inspirations, whether we write them ourselves or not.

As we journey together, our faith in the Word of God inspires and guides us forward in Christ.

Let us not be like the people in Egypt. Their attitude held them back from the Promised Land. They were so busy complaining and comparing that they missed God's call on their lives.

Testimonies are not just stories. They are powerful tools that profoundly influence our lives, often more than we realize. They are a testament to the power of the Blood. As the scripture declares, "We conquer the devil through the word of our testimonies, and by the Blood of the Lamb."

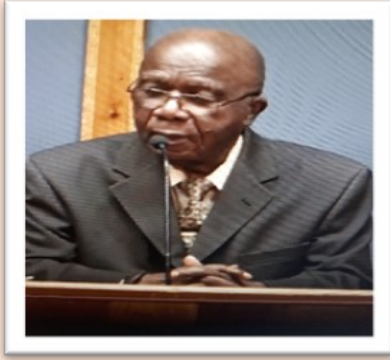

May God richly bless us as we continue to share what the Lord has done for us through our testimonies.

From the Pastor

Brother Lewis Nelson

This is an excerpt 'From the Pastor's Desk,' July 1997 Newsletter Edition.

The Prophet said in the message 'Perfect Faith,' "Now, faith is based on forgiveness. And then, as we said this morning, trying to get the church into the place to where we could really see apostolic times moving among us, that's what we all hunger. And it's just laying right at the door. We see it, but we want to see more of it. We want it such a flow that it'll be a help to us, flow out to others. So you see, faith is base on forgiveness. How can you say you have faith and can't forgive?"

Jesus said in Mark 11:25-26, "And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses. But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses"

Also in Matthew 5:43-44, He says, "Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you."

In Matthew 6:14, if ye forgive, then you will be forgiven. This is what Jesus said.

We may have our own idea or opinion of what should be done, but we must listen to Jesus. He is our Saviour and Lord. He has the final say in the matter.

In Matthew 18:21, Peter asked Jesus how often should he forgive his brother. What would you say? Jesus said, seventy times seven. So you can judge yourself. If you really have faith, then is when you have forgiveness. Faith worketh by love. (Satan's Eden, 65-0829). God is faith. God is love (1John 4:8).

So we see, if you can't forgive, you don't have God in your soul. You don't have faith. You don't have love. Don't be angry with yourself, just go to God. Then tell Him, "Lord, I just can't forgive my brother, sister, my enemies." He will take care of it for you. Let's pledge allegiance to the Lamb. "This is my commandment that you love one another."

Forgive, forgive, forgive, forgive, forgive. When you forgive the fifth time, that is Grace. Seventh time, Praise God. Elohim Himself is living in you. You can say, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."

God bless you, and God bless the Newsletter team: Sister Gail, Sister Nicole and Sister Angenela.

TITHES

We had been followers of Brother Branham's ministry for many years; nonetheless, we were still unprepared for the incomparable experience of being in the presence of a vindicated prophet of God.

For example, one afternoon my wife and I were invited to dinner with Brother Branham, and as we were visiting after the meal, he began to tell us about an interview he'd had earlier in the day with a man who had not paid tithes for three or four years. The man had asked what he had to do to get right before God, and Brother Branham said to us, "I just told him that he should pay all the back tithe he owed, plus twenty percent."

When my wife heard this, in her heart she began to wonder as to whether we were right in the way we paid our own tithing. We owned a business, and for some time we had been paying our tithes at the end of the year, when all our personal and business accounting was done. She didn't say a single word aloud, but Brother Branham turned instantly to her and said, "That's all right, Sister Norman, if you tithe once a year."

REFLECTION

His Banner Over Me is Love

Ever since I accepted the Lord as my Savior, I've seen Him as my Protector. I became a Christian when I was just a child. What drove me to become a Christian was my need to be safe.

My parents died when they were young. My mother got mentally ill when I was a baby, and she couldn't take care of me as a mother should. So, I was taken away from her and went to live with my grandparents.

Looking back, I understand why I always wanted to be with my grandmother. I felt safe when I was with her.

My grandmother was a Christian and an ardent churchgoer. I would attend church with her because I wanted to be with her. I loved to hear the congregation singing and worshipping God. One of the songs that caught my attention as a child was 'Jesus I Promised to Serve Thee to the End!'

O Jesus, I have promised to serve Thee to the end;
be Thou forever near me,
my Master and my Friend;
I shall not fear the battle
if Thou art by my side, nor wander from the pathway
if Thou wilt be my Guide.

I would listen to them sing the song and one day, I sang it unto the Lord. From that time, mercy followed me, and the Lord became my banner.

His banner over me is Love, a symbol of His constant presence and care. As I grew older, I understood and felt the depth of His Love and care for me through the years. He has always been there, watching over me and protecting me from many dangers, seen and unseen.

There were moments when I found myself in situations where only God's protection could have saved me. And He did. In those moments, I felt His hand guiding me, bringing me out of those circumstances and placing my feet firmly on His rock, ensuring my safety and security.

Psalm 91 speaks about God's protection: "My refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust."

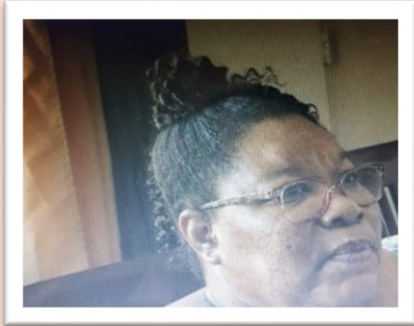

Just because we are under His protection doesn't stop the storms of life from happening to us. But we are held secure amid the storms where we are safe in His "sheltering arms."

I remember this story. A brother used to live in his shop in an industrial area. That area was dark at night because no houses were there, and people could hardly see clearly. A friend asked him if he wasn't afraid of being alone in his shop at night. His reply was, "Psalm 91, buddy! That keeps me safe."

You may see thunder, lightning, and darkness surround you, but remember that a covering of protection is around you.

"For He shall give His angels charge over you, to keep you in all your ways." Psalm 91:11 NKJV.

TESTIMONIES

Jesus Is the Best Thing Ever Happened to Me

God bless you Saints.

I come to testify today about the goodness of God. I had the second surgery on Friday March 22, 2024, to remove the rest of the kidney stones, and by God's grace, that went well. They got all of it. I gave God praise.

We ought to thank God because we don't know what Satan has in store. Here is the testimony:

My veins are small. They poke me so much. Oh, my goodness, I said, "Lady that thing is hurting."

None of the nurses could find my veins to put the drip or whatever they needed to prepare for surgery. So, the anesthesiologist tried, and he did it.

Once, we went into the operating room, and I was on the operating table; suddenly, I was beginning to black out. I could feel my mind; my brain was going black, and I went, "I'm going."

He goes, "Going! I didn't give you anything to go yet; where are you going?"

I said, "I'm going—am going."

I heard him say, "oh no! Stop, stop, stop! Whatever we're doing is making her faint."

I said, "Just a minute! I think I need to give my God praise. Can I do what I do?"

They said, "Yes."

I said, "Alright." And right in the O.R., I sang:

I've had my share of life's ups and downs
God's been good to me; and the doubts have been few
Well I guess you could say that God has blessed me
There's never been a time in my life He didn't see me through.

If anyone should ever write my life story
For whatever reason there might be
He was there between every line of pain and glory

Oh yes, He will. Jesus is the best thing that ever happened to me
Ah, you're the best thing that ever happened to me

When I finished singing the song, the surgeon said, "I love that song!"

I sang it in the O.R. full voice. It changed the atmosphere in the hospital.

When I came out of the operating room, all the nurses said, "Hey, hey! Get her to sing."

They were all nice to me.

I thank God because you don't know what they do or the mistakes they can make. I am here today; I shouldn't be, but I wanted to give my God Praise.

I thank God my kidneys are fine—no more stones.

"Jesus is the best thing that ever happened to me." Thank You Jesus!

Changed By Grace

I want to thank and praise God for how he has transformed my life since the first day I believed 'The Message for the Hour.' This testimony is about my husband.

As you all know, my husband and I separated in September 2023 because of unwanted circumstances. Things were not good between us during the latter part of our marriage. When we were still together, he became abusive though not physically, but verbally, emotionally, mentally, and financially, yes. We argued almost every day, and there was no peace anymore in our home, so I decided to separate from him due to the overwhelming stress.

Months after our separation, we discovered that he's been using drugs/substances that explained the changes in his behavior. So, his family decided to put him in a rehabilitation center, and since then, we have had no communication because they were not allowed to have their phone while they were still inside the center. I thank God because Christians operate the rehabilitation center, so every day, they have bible study, and they have been teaching him the ways and the word of God.

On January 06, 2024, he was released from the rehabilitation center, not because he'd already recovered but because his family decided to discontinue the program due to financial reasons. I trust and believe that it was God's will. He then reached out to me the following day, apologizing, and I can see that God is moving in his life right now. Praise God!

I started sharing God's word with him, and that genuine repentance is the first step. I told him he must ask for God's forgiveness, sincerely acknowledging his sins and making them right. At first, he was reluctant to reach out to those he had done wrong because he was concerned about what others may say about him.

He contacted my dad, apologizing for what had happened between us. My husband and my dad are not on good terms. They have not been talking since the day my dad rebuked him once about our situation. My husband is a very proud man; he never listens to anyone but himself, but seeing him now humbling himself to my dad, I knew God has started to work and transform him little by little. Praise the Lord! He began to talk and to praise God, which he had never done before. God is working even when we don't see it, He's working. Even when we don't feel it, He's working. He never stops working!

I'm so thankful to God for all His goodness and grace. Our marriage might have been broken, but because of that brokenness, I found God, and He made my heart whole again. He has given me a new heart since I surrendered everything to Him, and my life has never been the same. He never gave up on me, and I know He will do the same for my husband. He will deliver him and restore our relationship in His perfect timing, for God changes not.

He is the same yesterday, today, and forever!

God Gave Us a New Home

God bless you, Saints, and Pastor Nelson. I want to give praise and thanks to our Lord Jesus Christ for answering my prayer. It has been a couple of months since we moved to our new place.

Last November 2023, my family started looking for a place to move. Our landlady had informed us that she would do the renovation. Unfortunately, we couldn't find an affordable place.

My prayer to the Lord was to give us a new home, no matter what, as long as God's presence was there. While we searched, Sister Barbara Saboundji helped us and kept sending updates for available units. But most were too expensive, and we couldn't afford them.

One day, as I was on my YouTube account, one of our church streaming links was posted; I noticed at the bottom was a quote that stated, "Someone will give you a key to your new home." There were also some instances when Sister Karen, my daughter, saw a sign showing "WAIT."

One day, Sister Barbara sent me a message that she viewed an apartment that was supposed to be for her brother-in-law, but it was too big for one person. She decided to view it for us, and if we were interested, she needed to call the Superintendent ASAP to prioritize us for the subsequent viewing. It was on a waiting list for some to view it. Upon viewing the place, it was lovely, as Sister Barbara told us. It's very nice and peaceful.

After completing all the required documents, it was amazing that we were approved right away.

The move-in date was also excellent: Easter Monday, April 1st, and my husband's birthday was the next day, April 2nd.

I know our new home was from God. It was affordable, and the utilities were included. It's a real blessing. God moves in a mysterious way. Through Sister Barbara, God gave us a new home.

I keep believing in the promises for my husband's deliverance. My loved ones, my son and younger daughter, will come in God's time, for God will not lose one of His own.

Thank you for the prayers and Love. Praise and glory to our Lord Jesus Christ, our Jehovah Jireh.

God bless you all richly.

The Goodness of God in my life

God bless you saints.

I want to thank God for being "my everything" in my life. Often, when I face difficult situations at work, I call out His name in my heart and ask for help. As I recite the Word, "God is my strength and refuge, a very present help in trouble," He helps and comforts me.

Whenever I am sick and weak, the Word "I am the Lord that healeth thee" gives me strength to overcome my feelings and help me fight back. He always supplies my needs as He promised in His Word.

Whenever I am worried or down, His hands reach out and lift me up, and I am comforted by His Word.

When I am wrong, He rebukes and corrects me through His Word.

When I look at the lives of people who don't know The Saviour or refuse to accept Him, I see the goodness of God in my life, and I thank God for saving me. By His grace, I am living and pressing on until I reach the other side.

Always glory and honour to my God Jesus Christ.

God Answered My Prayer

In Nursing, obtaining a Monday through Friday job in a hospital setting is very difficult. Hundreds of nurses fight for the same jobs, and often, you are lucky to get an interview. Most nurses need to apply as casual staff first, then slowly move up to part-time and eventually full-time in these sought-after roles.

I applied for a full-time position in the Heart Function Clinic. It is a clinic job that monitors patients who have heart failure. This clinic has a small team of only two nurses for the entire hospital. The current nurse, who was to be replaced, had been in the role for 18 years and was retiring. Hundreds of nurses applied. I committed it to the Lord, applied, and was blessed enough to receive an interview. I tried to prepare for the interview by asking the other nurse in the clinic for a copy of the teaching package they use for patient education so that I could familiarize myself with the role. She refused to help me and even lied that such a book did not exist. Thankfully, I have a lot of cardiac experience as I have worked in Cardiology, the Coronary Care Unit, and The Cardiac Surgery ICU. I thought I would rely on my ability.

My interview was on a Monday. On the Sunday prior, at church, my sister told me to ask for prayer for the interview. I did not think I needed prayer because I relied on my ability (what a mistake). Thankfully, I listened to her, and the church prayed. Pastor Nelson said, "I gave you the job," and told me to place the prayer request in my bible. I wish I could say something spiritual, like I put the request in a scripture of promise, but that was not the case; I just threw it in my bible.

The next day, a panel of three people interviewed me. The panel only asked one nursing question, and I completely drew a blank. I could not come up with an intelligent response. I answered incorrectly and completely missed basic nursing. My response clearly showed the panel I was not the right person for the job. The panel was so shocked at my poor response that all three did not know what to say.

They looked at me strangely, shocked at how badly the interview went compared to my resume. I came out of the interview devastated and upset because I usually interview well. I prayed and expressed my heart to the Lord; I told Him I was holding Him to His Word. I tried to have faith, but my heart was devastated and doubted.

I emailed Human Resources to ask for a second opportunity at another interview for the same job. I tried to convince them that despite my not-great interview, I was a good nurse and capable. But I did not get a response.

One week later, on a Sunday, my husband was driving us home after church, and my phone rang. I usually don't answer phone numbers I do not know, but something told me to answer the phone. Human Resources was on the phone! Initially, I thought the gentleman was providing me with a new interview time, and I was astonished he was working on a Sunday, as Human Resources is a Monday to Friday-job. When I asked the man when my new interview would be, he became very confused about why I was asking for an interview when he was calling to offer me the job!

Praise be to God. They offered me the job with no credit of my own. I had completely messed up for this amazing, sought-after nursing job. I relied on my ability, but God showed me it has nothing to do with me or my ability; it is only by His Amazing Grace.

God has given me one of the best nursing jobs, and I am grateful for it every day.

YOUTH

Here is an excerpt from Brother Emmanuel Tombe's sermon 'Youth in the Economy of God' at Perfect Love Tabernacle Youth Service on Sunday, June 02, 2024.

And now you, the young people, are dealing with Tic-Tac, YouTube, Instagram, you name it. We can't pretend that these things don't exist. It will be foolish to think that these things don't exist. But how do we navigate through all of this? And so, you can't pretend that they are not face with these challenges. This is the age and generation that they are born in. The question is, how do we help them through it? And so, my subject this morning is 'Youth in the Economy of God.'

Just as Satan has young people in his economy, I believe with all my heart that God today, in this tabernacle, in this congregation, has youth who are ordained for His economy. Reading from 1 Timothy 4:12, Paul advises Timothy. As the scripture says in verse 12, "Let no man despise thy youth...." I imagine he was a young man. I don't see a youth 40 years old. I doubt it.

"Let no man despise thy youth but be thou an example of the believers." In what? "In word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity." "Let no man despise thy youth." That's very important because Paul realizes Timothy, as a young man, is going to be facing older people who would look down upon him and think that because he is young, they will despise him. And that same thing is happening in the Message.

Why do you think that they are so many discouraged young people today in the Message? Is it say that God does not have gifted people? Is it say that God does not have a new generation coming up that He could lay His hands upon? It is because many times as the older ones we do things that will discourage them and then they don't want to come to church. Who are you going to blame?

Sometimes, we need to look at ourselves closely. Young people don't have the desire to come to church no more, and then we want to blame them--oh..., you backslide! Or this or that. Maybe it is your attitude at home—what they see you doing, the way you talk to them. I am talking to myself, too, today.

And you know why I said what I said a while back? Because I can relate. There were times where in your little world within you, your emotions are so locked up you don't feel like expressing them to people because you think that nobody understands you. So, you coil up and then you begin to act out those emotions. You don't say, but you act them out.

And you realize it is such a delicate stage to be in, that if as a parent, or even as a minister, as a pastor, or whatever it might be, if you don't have the discernment to sometimes pull back and reflect what could be going on in their world.

We want to impose a one-solution, but as Paul was telling Timothy, "Don't let any man despise thy youth." And we are here to encourage our young people, not to discourage them. Praise God.

We are here to encourage them; make them feel like they are understood--the things that they are going through. Praise God!

Brother Branham said in the message, Come, Follow Me 63-0601

These young ones sitting here tonight, .... But I realize, Lord, something that happened just a few hours before that great shock, or great blast, had taken place in the mountain up there north of Tucson, when the angels of the Lord came down. I remember what was said and especially about the young people.

If the coming down of the angels, the message includes an address or a message for the young people. I don't know what the message was. Brother Branham didn't say what it was, so I can't probe into it. But just taking the thought that God is mindful of the young people. It means that there is something we must pay attention to.

And Brother Branham said, "I pray thee Lord to help us to understand, and may I be able to say something to these young folks tonight that will help along the journey. For, Lord, we all need that help this time."

In Times of Disappointment and Failure

Can you think of a life when things way you thought was such a source of disappointment devastated? A time dreams or something, situation, and then disappointed when

This can occur in lives. Perhaps it's a relationship, turns out to be nothing like you expected. Or you make an important decision about something that you believe to be right, and it turns out to be so wrong you wonder if you ever had any discernment about it in the first place. Or a situation will come up in your life over which you have absolutely no control, and you wonder, "How did this happen to me?"

We've all been there!

Have you ever taken one job over another because you had high hoped that it would be a great opportunity and offer you a good future? But then once you got into the job, you found that it was not what you expected at all, and it was too late to go back. It turned out to be a dead-end street, bringing only frustration, misery, and nothing in the way of fulfillment or reward. And to make matters worse, the job you turned down now seems to be the one full of promise, opportunity and fulfillment.

situation in your didn't turn out the they would, and it of painful that you were when you had big expectations about someone, or some you were painfully it didn't happen.

any area of our happened to you in where the person

People fail us, parents fail us, the system fail us, our judgment fails us, and, worse of all we sometimes fail ourselves. We fail to make the right choice. When it happens, we have to lay down our expectations and put them in the Lord. He is the only one who will never fail us.

The only way to survive these times of great loss, disappointment, or failure, and see a reversal in what is happening, is to surrender them to God, lift your heart and hands to Him, and praise Him in the midst of it all. Thank Him that He is all-powerful, all-loving, all-knowing, all-seeing, all-caring, and all-encompassing. Thank Him that He is sovereign and knows the end from the beginning.

What we see as going wrong is often God's opportunity to do something great in our life. Our disappointment, losses, and failures don't have to destroy our future. When we worship Him, we invite Him to rule instead. When we praise Him in our failure, He uses His transforming power to work redemption and restoration in our life. He is a Redeemer and can redeem our greatest disappointments. We will never be disappointed in Him.

When you worship God for who He is and thank Him for His great plan of redemption in your situation, you will see His glory revealed as He brings good out of it.

Even though loss, disappointment, or failure can be crippling, don't allow your faith in the goodness of God and His love for you to waver. His promise to you is that "all things work together for good." (Romans 8:28). That means that something good will come out of even your tragedy. God's love, grace, and mercy assure us that even though we endure deep sorrow, "joy comes in the morning." (Psalm 30:5).

That's good news!

This encouragement for the youth was an excerpt from a book on 'Prayer.'

Testimonies

Thanksgiving

God bless you Saints.

By the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, one year has passed since I arrived in Canada. I would like to thank the Lord for everything He has done for me and is doing for me.

When I came here on April 18, 2023, I didn't know anything about how the education system works. I failed one of the courses in the first semester, and my hopes of having a Co-op placement were almost gone because I must have a Co-op placement.

To apply for a Co-op placement, I must pass every course in every semester before the Co-op term starts. I prayed, and then the Lord came on the scene for me and made sure that I got eligible for Co-op by giving me another chance. Not only did He make sure that I passed the courses, but I finished with an A Grade.

Another instance when God came on the scene to get me out of the impossible situation was when I came to Canada; IRCC kept asking me for different kinds of medical tests. They had concerns that I might have tuberculosis because I had asthma in the past, which the Lord Jesus Christ has healed me. It took six months of different medical tests, but the Lord prevailed, and all the tests were negative, so I was deemed medically fit to stay in Canada.

There are many more testimonies in the last year that the Lord has come to the scene for me, but one testimony I would like to mention is that the Lord has provided me with such a great church where everyone cared for me, prayed for me, and stood with me every time. They celebrated my birthday in the best way for me, as it was my best birthday ever.

Praise God

I testify of God's goodness and grace for giving me good health and a job to cover my finances.

I also thank God for such blessed brethren who are in tune with the Holy Spirit.

The right atmosphere is present, and there is much growth and encouragement in the Lord.

Jesus Calms the Storms

Mark 4 verses 35 - 41

- 35 And the same day, when the evening was come, he saith unto them, let us pass over unto the other side.
- 36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships.
- 37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.
- 38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awaken him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?
- 39 And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.
- 40 And he said unto them, why are ye so fearful? How is it that ye have no faith?
- 41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, what manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

In this story Jesus shows that He has power over nature, over fear, over any problem and he can give anyone or any storm peace once there is faith. If ever we find ourselves in the middle of a storm do not be fearful. These storms may not be wind, rough waters and raging seas.

In life sometimes we may face different Challenges

(difficulties) we often refer to them as life's storms. Throughout life's journey on earth, we may face different storms. These storms can be a sickness, bullying, peer pressure, in need of food, money, clothes, a home, difficulties in school and the list goes on. Facing these life challenges (difficulties) sometimes it can become very hard and out of control on us, just like the way the storm had become very hard and out of control on the disciples. If life's storms get out of control at times fear may want to come upon us. When fear comes to us we will start to worry and panic, which is not good for our health. That is why we all should have Jesus Christ in our boat/life.

When Jesus is in our boat (life) we don't get scared, worried and panic during a storm, we are different. Why? Because we know Jesus Christ is in our boat/life. All we have to do is go wake him like the disciples. Just call on Jesus and we know he will hear and answer us if we have faith. We call on Jesus through prayers.

Psalm 91

15 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him and honor him.

Matthew 21

22 And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

Having Jesus in our boat (life) doesn't not mean we will not have trouble and problems/Storm. We have to remember we are living in a sinful world and storms will come our way.

John 16

33 These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

Jesus Calming The Storm

Read Mark 4 verses 35 – 41 then answer the questions below.

What did you
this story
teach you about Jesus?

Based on the story, I learnt that Jesus can perform great miracles with the Power he has. In this story, Jesus only had to speak a few words and the storm listened. Jesus is able to control any circumstances because he created the world.

Imagine you are
with Jesus
In this story,
what would say
to Jesus?

If I was in this story I would be scared. I would call on Jesus and ask him to give me more faith and help me to trust in him more.

Jesus Calming The Storm

Read Mark 4 verses 35 – 41 then answer the questions below.

What did you
this story
teach you
about Jesus?

This story taught me to have faith in Jesus, because when you have faith in Jesus the impossible will become possible if you should ask Jesus for help.

Name: Ruth

Age: 13years

Imagine you are
with Jesus
In this story,
what would say
to Jesus?

If I were there when this event happened, I would trust in God to calm the storm. I would tell Jesus I have Faith, and I would ask Jesus to take away any remaining unbelief within me.
